

Contents

Foreword	VII
1. Vocabulary of Indian Arts: Some Reflections	1
Krishna Mohan Shrimali
2. Tamil Literary Traditions: Their Relevance in the Study of Indian Arts	33
Raju Kalidos
3. Reflections on the Past, Perspectives for the Future. Re-use Theory as a Method for Critical Analysis in Art-historical Research	77
Julia A.B. Hegewald
4. Indian Temple Typologies	101
Adam Hardy
5. Contesting Stereotypes: The Case of Hindu Identity	127
Dwijendra Narayan Jha
6. The Brahmanisation of Gandhāra and Greater Gandhāra	153
Giovanni Verardi
7. Vaiṣṇava divyadeśas of Malaināṭu in the Historical Setting	173
Sethuraman Ganeshrām
8. Iconographies between Shipwrecks and Resurfacing Trésors	211
Rosa Maria Cimino
9. Dance of Ardhanārī. A Historiographical Retrospection	233
R.K. K. Rajarajan

10. Remembering 'Tribal' India: Landscape, Ethnology and Governance in Chotanagpur and Santal Parganas in the Nineteenth Century	271
Sanjukta Das Gupta
11. Recent Italian Perspectives on Gandhi	295
Mario Prayer
12. Notes on Gandharan Painting	319
Ciro Lo Muzio
13. The Temple Complex of Talakad. New Archaeological Evidence between History and Popular Tradition	337
Tiziana Lorenzetti
14. Change and Continuity in Hinduism. A Category of its own in the History of Religions	361
Fabio Scialpi
Contributors	407